Certification Agreement

For and in consideration of the fee submitted and the mutual covenants contained herein, the National Association of Interpretation (NAI) agrees that the undersigned applicant, upon receiving written notice of successful completion of the specified level of Interpreter, shall become certified under the NAI Professional Certification Program. The applicant agrees that he/she has reviewed and understands the provisions of the Program, and further agrees to adhere to all the terms and provisions of this agreement and the Program procedures.

Applicant understands that the NAI Professional Certification Program is totally separate from NAI membership and all other NAI programs, and that certification under this Program does not create in the certified party any NAI membership rights nor any rights in any other NAI program including but not limited to, the rights to use any other NAI mark. The applicant also agrees that he/she will immediately cease any use of any NAI certification mark or other reference to the NAI Professional Certification Program upon notice from NAI that his/her rights have been revoked or suspended.

Applicant understands and agrees that the Certification will be personal to the Applicant and may not be transferred or assigned to any other individual or entity. Applicant agrees that use of the Certification and related mark by an employer must be in accordance with NAI Certification procedures and guidelines.

Applicant agrees to indemnify and hold harmless NAI, its Directors, Officers, Staff, Certification Program Board of Directors, agents and employers from and against all claims, damages, losses and expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees, arising out of applicant's participation in the NAI Professional Certification Program and use of the NAI certification emblem or other reference to the NAI Professional Certification Program.

I agree to abide by the stated terms above regarding Certification:
